7:30-8:30 am: Breakfast & Registration

8:30-9:25 am: TEFL 101: Teaching English as a Foreign Language, Room

Presented by Brett Reichert – Clayton State University

This session is designed to give an overview of Teaching English as a Foreign Language and provide tools for advisors to better assist students interested in pursuing this career path.

Lessons from Abroad - A Statewide Re-Entry Conference in 2014?, Room

Colette Fournier, Georgia State University and Carissa Williams, CEA Global Education

Join us for an interactive discussion about starting our own statewide re-entry conference! We are in the initial planning stages and welcome feedback as well as interest in joining us as we develop this joint returnee program.

I-94 Automation: The Good, The Bad, and the Ugly

Presenters will outline I-94 automation changes, discuss positive aspects, potential for difficulties as well as how campuses should consider processes for checking in new students and scholars, supporting their interactions with governmental agencies and assisting with USCIS applications. A discussion of best practices will be facilitated.

What Are We Advocating For: Understanding the S. 744 Immigration Bill

Sure, you've heard about the proposed immigration bill, S. 744, but do you know what it's about and how it will affect you, your students, and Georgia? Attend this session to learn more and to discuss current immigration issues challenging your students and scholars.

9:35-10:30 am

Short-term Study Abroad & Student/Faculty Satisfaction

UGA Terry College of Business piloted short-term study abroad program wherein a Terry faculty led a joint seminar abroad for UGA and international students of a partner university. The outcomes for faculty and students of the program were better than expected.

Assurance in Insurance: International Students Coverage

The recent changes in student coverage has colleges and universities pondering how it will affect international students. Join this session to share information from your institution and to learn from others.

10:50-11:45 am

The Worst Cocktail Party in Georgia: Learn to Defend & Advocate for International Education

Welcome to the worst cocktail party in Georgia! Your "Uncle Earl" shows up trying to understand why you would help a student "not from here" or send out USA's best and brightest to a "foreign" country to learn. Prepare yourself to discuss and defend with a smile.

Intercultural Prep for Study Abroad students: Assessing Needs and Designing Appropriate Orientations

This session will explore different intercultural preparation methods appropriate for students participating in a variety of study abroad programs (e.g. short-term, longer-term, faculty-led, exchanges). Participants will learn how to assess their students' needs and will be given examples of easy-to-use intercultural exercises.

Sunapsis User Group Roundtable

The presenters will give an overview of how Sunapsis is used on each campus, pros and cons, and how each school is working within its own systems to create efficient workflows. The round-table discussion format is intended for any user of the Sunapsis.

11:45-1:15 pm:

Lunch

Business Meeting & Nominations

1:15-2:10 pm:

Study Georgia Meeting

Study Georgia is a consortium of 30 Georgia colleges and universities that are working together to recruit international students. We will be discussing our recent and potential future recruitment activities. We encourage all current members to participate and invite all of those interested in becoming members to attend.

The "Who's in Charge" Chart: Understanding Academic and Risk Management Control in Study Abroad

A simple schematic for talking about the loci of control of both academics and logistics/risk management in a variety of study abroad program types, and the advantages and disadvantages of each.

Sunapsis User Group Roundtable

The presenters will give an overview of how Sunapsis is used on each campus, pros and cons, and how each school is working within its own systems to create efficient workflows. The round-table discussion format is intended for any user of the Sunapsis.

2:20-3:15 pm:

3:35-4:30 pm:

Fulbright Seminar for US Administrators in Higher Education

Interested in gaining professional development while also exploring a new culture? The Fulbright IEA seminars are opportunities for administrators to learn more about education and the cultures from various countries. This session will cover the the Germany Fulbright IEA and information on how you can apply to represent your institution.

The Ugly International Peer Leader Program Showcase

A showcase of the International Peer Leader Program at Kennesaw State University (KSU) which trains international and domestic students to assist with KSU's International Student Orientation.
