FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS:

WHAT'S DIFFERENT ABOUT INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS?

- The intersection of a student's immigration status and their academics/career goals
- Cultural background & norms
- Language
- Cost and expectations:
 - In the words of an undergraduate student from Jamaica, "International students have so much more to lose than Americans. That's why we work so hard."

DAN BEAUDRY, AUTHOR OF POWER TIES: THE INTERNATIONAL STUDENT'S GUIDE TO FINDING A JOB IN THE UNITED STATES.

(Georgia Tech, September 2016)

SPECIFIC ISSUES TO TARGET

- Entrepreneurship
- Negotiations with employers don't just involve salary; can involve visa sponsorship
 - Students ask, "which employers hire internationals?"
- Networking and "small talk" American-style
- Written style resume, cover letter
- How to search for a job in the competitive U.S. job market?
 - Informational interviewing, networking
